Family Worship

Family Worship this week will be led by the author Jude Lennon (Slow Down for Bobby).

Please stay for tea and coffee afterwards in the staffroom.

For your information

Just to let you know we are currently looking at introducing a system whereby we can contact all parents by email this would be a useful tool to share information and could possibly cut down on some of the paper communications we currently use. Our idea is to trial the system with our new Reception parents in September.

We will let you know more information as things develop.

St Chad's Induction

It is with sad news the former St Chad's Headteacher, Arthur Graley passed away last week. Mr Graley was Headteacher at St Chad's from September 1994 to July 2007. As a mark of respect the Governors at St Chad's have agreed to close the school for the afternoon of 4th July so colleagues can attend the funeral. This will impact on planned activities for our year 6 children. Please note that Year 6 Induction will take place on Monday 3rd July only and that the Information Evening will now take place on the same day, 3rd July at 6.30pm. I am sure you will understand these changes and I am aware some of you will have known Mr Graley as Headteacher of St Chad's.

Football Kit

Just another reminder, a number of football shirts have still not been returned to school. Please return as a matter of urgency as we have been chasing them for a number of months now. Thank you.

Quote for the Week -

Often we upset people or they upset us; either by what we/they do or what we/they say. Forgiveness is one of the hardest things. The word 'forgive' literally means 'to give away': it has very little to do with the other person; it's a decision you make, like exhaling carbon dioxide from your body because you know holding on to it will only harm you. So go ahead, exhale: release forgiveness.

Matthew 6:12-15

Prayers

Our prayers and thoughts this week are especially for the victims and families of those involved in the Grenfell disaster in London.

God Bless!
